MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the Banag-Banag Inc. (Bisayan-Speaking Association in New South Wales, Australia), as you celebrate your 19th Anniversary.

This day is a celebration of the indomitable Filipino spirit that continues to burn fervently amidst today's increasingly globalized milieu. We in government thank you for letting our roots flourish in your adopted homeland. That you continue to use your mother tongue—a distinct facet of our storied heritage—attests to your patriotism and pride in our multi-faceted identity.

Likewise, we are grateful for your contributions that empower your disenfranchised kababayans. We have taken resolute steps in transforming our nation, and your support bolsters our strides as we break through the barriers of intergenerational poverty and move closer to our dream of an equitably progressive Philippines.

Let us stoke the fire of hope and change in the hearts of our countrymen and bring about lasting, significant difference in the society. I wish you a happy and meaningful anniversary.

MESSAGE FROM PRIME MINISTER KEVIN RUDD

BANAG-BANAG 19TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

It gives me great pleasure to send my best wishes to all those attending the 19th anniversary celebrations of Banag-Banag Inc., the Bisayan Speaking Association in New South Wales.

I would like to take this opportunity to commend your organisation for your valuable contribution to social and charitable works across Sydney and in the Philippines over the last 18 years.

Community groups such as Banag-Banag Inc. play a significant role in promoting and sharing Filipino culture and traditions. Australia is a nation of many different cultures, underpinned by tolerance and mutual respect. This diversity and common commitment to democratic traditions builds and strengthens our multicultural society while bringing communities together.

Australia and the Philippines have a long history of bilateral cooperation supported by growing people-to-people links in trade, tourism and migration. The efforts of the Filipino Australian community in contributing to the strong relationship between our two countries are much valued.

My best wishes to you for the future and may all those attending tonight enjoy a successful and memorable evening.

The Honourable Kevin Rudd
Prime Minister of Australia

Premier of New South Wales
Minister for Western Sydney

MESSAGE OF SUPPORT

BARRY O'FARRELL MP

I am delighted to send my greetings to everyone involved in Banag-Banag's night of Mystique and Illusions celebrating 19 years of community service both in the Philippines and here in NSW.

Banag-Banag Inc., the Bisayan Speaking Association in NSW has continued to work tirelessly for those less fortunate in their local community, specifically through Youth Programme in Blacktown, Liverpool and Campbelltown.

It is great that Banag-Banag remains committed to its homeland by assisting those in need in the Philippines and I commend everyone who has contributed to the achievements made to date.

Ranging from disaster relief and education scholarships through to the purchasing of wheelchairs for public hospitals and deep water wells in remote communities, Banag-Banag's numerous programs have provided immeasurable amounts of care and aid to those less fortunate and changed the lives of many.

I am sure tonight will succeed in celebrating the 19th anniversary of Banag-Banag as well as raise funds for those in need.

I offer my best wishes to Banag-Banag Inc for the year ahead and wish everyone taking part in the night of Mystique and Illusions a wonderful evening.

Barry O'Farrell MP

PHILIPPINES CONSULATE MESSAGE

Congratulations to the officers and members of the Banag-Banag, Inc on the occasion of their 19th Anniversary.

I wish you success as you all work together to ensure the continuity of your worthwhile projects and activities, including relief assistance for disaster victims in the Philippines and in Australia, provision of water wells to remote areas in the Philippines, scholarship program, donation of wheelchairs to Philippine public hospitals, and assistance to disadvantaged Australian children.

May you all remain untiring in your efforts and steadfast in your commitment to do your share in helping those who are in need in your respective provinces in the Philippines as well as here in Australia.

I take this opportunity to also congratulate the Banag-Banag Inc. which, in partnership with the Parramatta City Council, co-organised a very successful, meaningful and well attended Philippine National Day celebration last 29 June 2013.

Mabuhay!

ANNE JALANDO-ON LOUIS
Consul General

Philippine Community

Message

On behalf of the Philippine Community Council of NSW, I would like to congratulate Banag-Banag Inc on your 19th year of service in the Filipino Community of New South Wales.

Your various continuing projects in Australia as well as in the Philippines are no doubt a source of pride and inspiration not only by your members but more importantly by the wider Filipino community of NSW.

I would like to acknowledge your organization's active participation for the past several years now in organizing the Philippine flag-raising event in Parramatta in collaboration with the Parramatta Council in the celebration of the Philippine Independence day anniversary in June of each year.

Banag-Banag has been staunch and loyal supporters of the Philippine Community Council for more than a decade now. Through the years, your organizations has supported and assisted PCC-NSW in all of its fund-raising projects and activities.

PCC_NSW is proud to have you as one of its active members.

ELSA RINGOR COLLADO

President
PCC-NSW

Welcome to the 19th anniversary of Banag-Banag Inc. This year theme is focused on circus, mystic and Illusion.

Let me give you a little insight of what the mission and purpose of this organization. It is a charitable fund-raising organization formed 19 years ago which main objective and mission is to help the less fortunate ones.

I as president of this organization and with the help and support of my officers, I will Endeavour to carry out and achieve such mission at all cost.

I am greatly fortunate that I have a group of solid, strong, dedicated, assertive and greatly committed bunch of officers, advisers and members who work with me to reach this common and noble goal.

Only this month, Banag-Banag delivered nebulizers to the needy hospitals in the Philippines. It donated school supplies, thongs and foods to the Primary schools in the remote areas of the Philippines. This organization is also committed to help and assist Friendship Home Foundation Inc , an orphanage Home for those children who lost their parents and families during the typhoon Sendong in fact just this month it donated clothing, food and toys to these orphans.

Back home here in Australia, Banag Banag sponsored a youth Bootcamp at Doonside New South Wales as well as children through smith Family.

I am grateful and indeed very happy to inform that this organization has on-going projects, the Don Bosco, Pasil Cebu Scholarship program having given 28 scholarships to students who are now all working.. Currently it has given scholarship to 5 students .

I pray that I and my fellow officers will be rightfully guided as we continue along to fulfil the great mission of the organization to help the least fortunate.

Lastly, I take this opportunity to thank the officers, directors and advisers for their tireless efforts to make this a great success. I also thanks all and every one who have supported this fundraising event a great success.

Thank you very much, Daghang salamat kaninyong tanan.
